What Might Happen Next?

Instructions: Think about what might happen next in the story. What could go wrong? What could go right? Could there be a problem? Draw your own middle and end to the story. Be sure to include what the characters are saying. (It's OK to show a problem or fight. Sometimes that happens. But then think about what could happen next to make things better.) Come together as a class and listen to the different endings to this story. Was there a problem? How was it solved?
